Kilkenny County – Kilkenny Leader Partnership (7-1)

Kilkenny submitted 3 case studies under Goal 1, Goal 2 and Collaborations. Goal 1 This project follows the establishment of Kindred an informal collective of creative's who are from or have been drawn to Kilkenny which has a strong reputation for creativity. This group has been developed around people who feel distant from this creative reputation and in many cases distant from mainstream society. This case study describes the strategic supports delivered by KLP in facilitating, planning and structuring the group. A high proportion of the group are under 25 and a number of them participated in an ETB funded Introduction to Multimedia Production course.

Goal 2 What's Next? This project is a pilot programme designed to bridge the gap between those leaving school with no planned progression route in place and registering with the welfare system. It is an inclusive programme for anyone in 6th year education that is not planning to go onto third level education. It explores on an individual basis where further supports are required. It has been delivered in 3 schools in 2018 and has had positive results.

Collaborative approach - Business, Community Development & Social Inclusion led Regeneration in Castlecomer and Graiguenamanagh. This case study reflects on the collaborative activity between KLP and Kilkenny County Council and the appointment of dedicated Community Development & Social Enterprise Animators to work with the communities. The aim was to regenerate each of the towns and develop the tourism/economic potential of the area.

Wicklow Arklow & Baltinglass – Co. Wicklow Community Partnership (15-2)

This case study focuses on Goal 1 engagement strategies. The purpose of the 'Hear my Voice' workshops was to support communities to self-identify and collaboratively address community needs through social inclusion focused, community consultation events, using a proven model of good practice that took place in Carnew, Dunlavin and Rathnew.
